LEECH LAKE CANNABIS CO.

Premium Cannabis Rooted in Community

Leech Lake Cannabis Co. is a tribally owned and operated cannabis company headquartered in Cass Lake, Minnesota. More than a cannabis producer, we are an investment in the future of the Leech Lake Band of Ojibwe—creating quality products, meaningful employment, and long-term economic opportunity through responsible cultivation and manufacturing.

Every product is developed with the same commitment to quality, consistency, accountability, and respect. From premium flower to everyday essentials, our brands are designed to meet consumers wherever they are in their cannabis journey while delivering dependable experiences retailers can confidently stand behind.
